Advisory Council

As the South Park Community Center continues to provide year-round recreational opportunities, we invite you and your family to take part in our programs. We invite you to join your neighbors and take an active role in determining the types of programs offered at the South Park C. C.

Join the South Park Advisory Council by contacting Sue Kershaw at 767-5695 or Naseri Kitiona at 684-7451. Everyone is welcome!!!

SCHOLARSHIPS

Seattle Parks and Recreation encourages participation by low-income City of Seattle residents. Scholarships or low income rates are available for some youth instructional programs. Scholarships are limited to specific programs and are granted based on financial need. For further information please call us. Please contact Denise Pitman for scholarship information and an application.

Have a Party! at

To rent South Park for your next event, call 684-7451.

FEES AND CHARGES

Parks and Recreation fees are charges are necessary to provide financial support to the Seattle Parks and Recreation for the operating costs of programs, facilities and grounds. The revenue generated by these fees constitutes only a portion of funds required for operating and maintaining the Parks system. All fees collected from parks and recreation activities and concessions are used exclusively for the Parks system as these funds are deposited in the Parks and Recreation Fund, not the City General Fund.

REFUND POLICY

For community centers, swimming pools, small craft centers and other recreation providers, it is the policy of Seattle Parks and Recreation and the Associated Recreation Council that:

- Any person who registers for a class, camp, special event or program that is canceled for any reason by the Department or the Advisory Council will receive a full refund.
- Any person who registers for a day camp, trip, overnight camp special event, or facility rental, and who requests a refund within 14 days of its start (or before the second session of a class), may receive a refund minus a service charge.
- Any person who registers for a day camp, trip, overnight camp, special event, or facility rental, and who withdraws from the activity fewer than 14 days before its start (or before the second session of a class), will receive no refund. Please ask for specific information before enrolling.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION

As a matter of policy, law, and commitment, the Seattle Department of Parks and Recreation does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, marital status, sexual orientation, political ideology, age, creed, religion, ancestry, national origin or presence of any sensory, mental or physical handicap.

(Seattle Municipal Code 18.12.280)

ADA COMPLIANCE

Reasonable accommodation will be made on request for persons with disabilities. If you need sign language interpretation, auxiliary aids or other accommodation, please call 684-7451 or TDD only 233-7061. If possible, please allow 10 working days advance notice for sign language interpretation or auxiliary aids. If a class or activity is scheduled in an area that is not barrier-free for wheelchairs, we will make every effort to help you find a similar program in an accessible location.

South Park Advisory Council

The South Park Community Center Advisory Council, in partnership with the City of Seattle Department of Parks and Recreation, takes a leadership role by planning and organizing programs to be held at the South Park Community Center and the surrounding playfield. Programs, classes, scholarships are funded by the Advisory Council.

Be a part of your local South Park Community Center and become involved with other citizens and staff in planning programs for neighborhood children, teens, adults, seniors and families.

The South Park Advisory Council meets monthly. For the next meeting fall Sue Kershaw, Chairperson at 767-5695 or the Community Center at 684-7451.
